

for the freight trains
 to Utah and back.
 fire, flood and Indian
 that prices were high
 flour brought from
 kerosene a dollar and
 s were high, pioneers
 after the freight train wear to obtain the ar-
 in price but so were
 the early fifties it
 dises hauled from the California. The rate

ISE, AND FREIGHTERS

d opened a mercantile back. They had bought
 s from St. Louis. This ment in Utah.
 residents of Salt Lake
 e immigrants headed
 A constant stream of summer in their mad
 ld dust of the Pacific ighers. Upon leaving
 ed with goods for the
 s, clothing, blankets,
 they arrived in Utah,
 of them lay a great Nevada. Their wagons
 many wild stories of
 ed their ears which
 mines as quickly as h who needed wear-
 y. They had been in ng they had brought
 the point of wearing
 men had been reduced

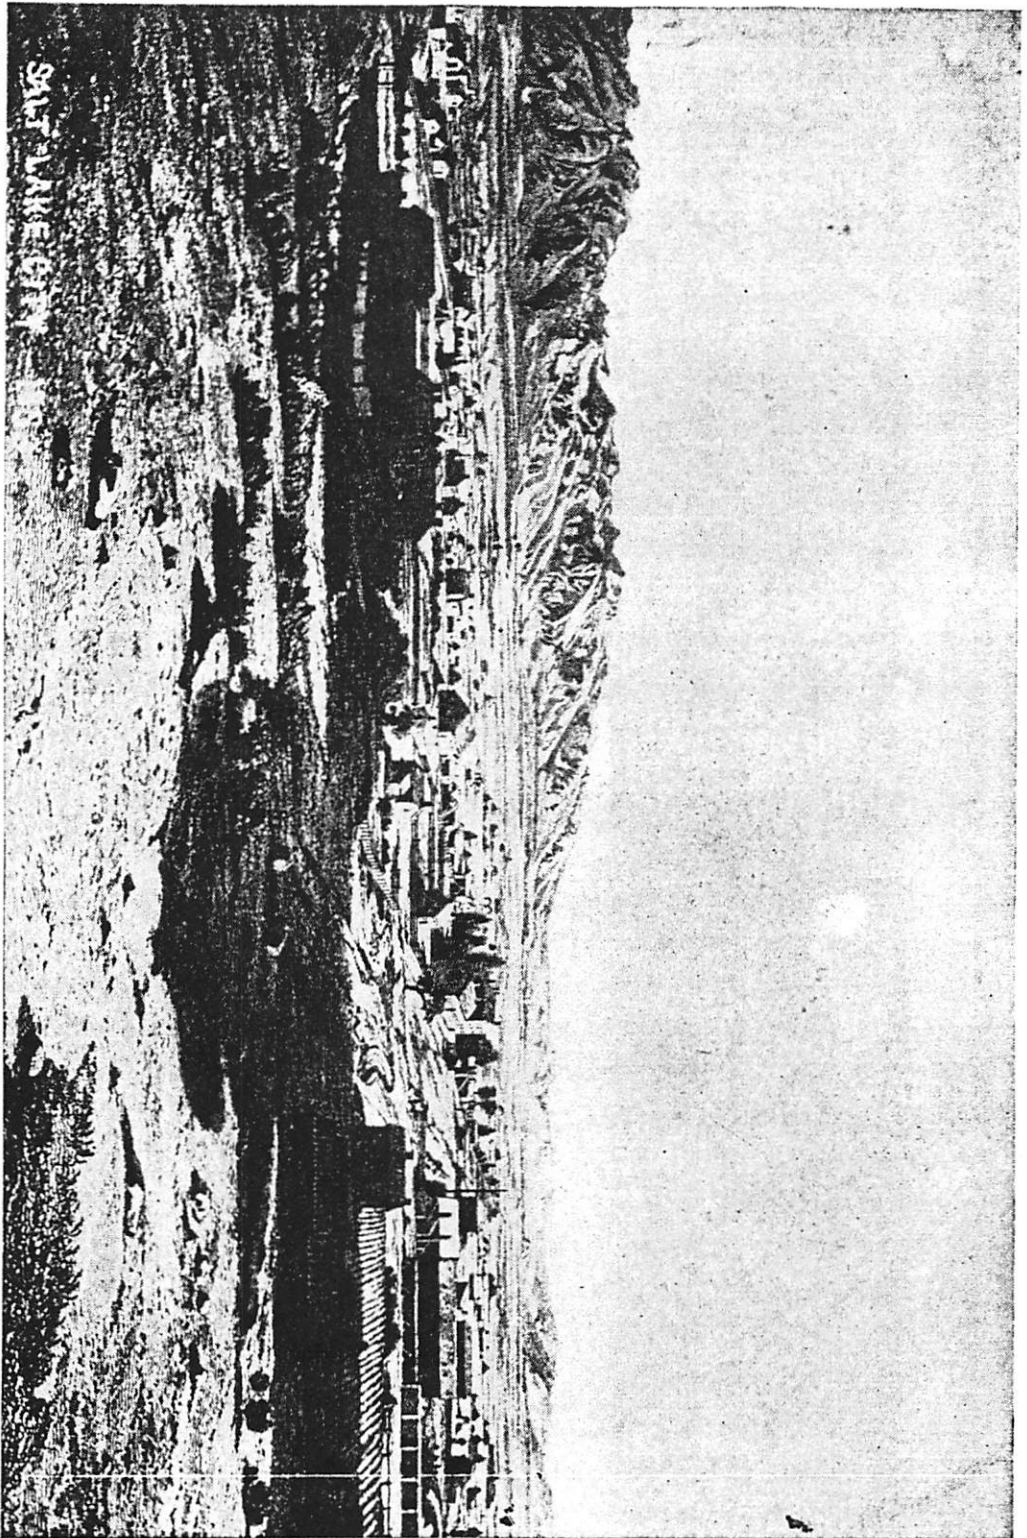

UNLOADING GOODS FROM OX TRAIN FOR WALKER BROTHERS, 1868

p173 Utah - The Story of Her People

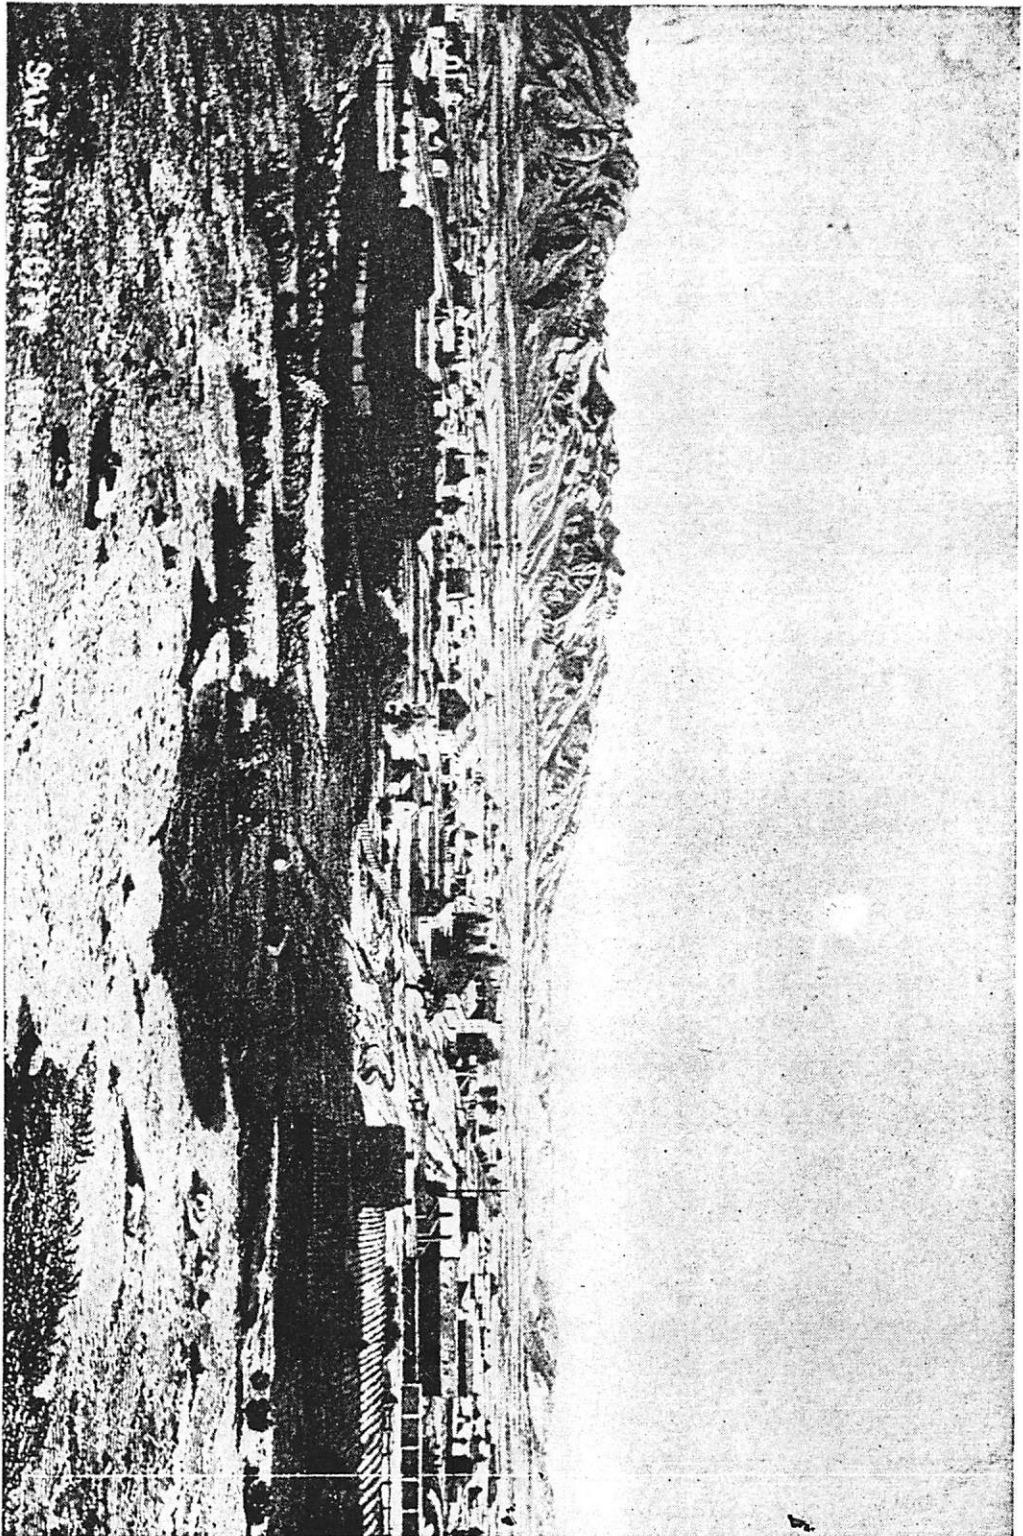

UNLOADING GOODS FROM OX TRAIN FOR WALKER BROTHERS, 1868

SALT LAKE CITY IN 1853

SALT LAKE CITY IN 1853

p249 Utah - The Story of Her People